Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

A warm welcome to all, especially those who are worshipping with us for the first time this morning. We hope your time here today will be a blessing to you, as your presence is a blessing to us. All who seek closeness with God are welcome to receive Holy Communion this morning.

Our New Parish Website. Here seekers and members alike will be able to find information about St. Margaret's and stay up to date with current church events. More and more people in our community are online and we want to move forward in making connections with those around us. With the development of the new website, we have created a new Communications & PR Committee which will help identify new and better ways to advertise our services, activities and events to the community around us. Check out the new website at: www.stmargaretofscotland.ca (same as before) and let us know what you think. Comments and suggestions may be made to any member of the Communications Committee: Colleen Austin, Charles Bull, Annette Kelly, Anne King Nancy Lee Mason and Danny Ray Stay tuned! More to come.

Sunday November 18th is St. Margaret's Day and we will be celebrating our Patronal Festival. The 10:30 am service, will be followed by hot lunch in the hall. Please plan to come back if you can.

The Mission to Seafarers "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matthew 25:35) The Mission to Seafarers is again running its ever popular Christmas Shoe Box Program. Our November outreach - Items needed include: A warm hat, gloves/mittens, scarf, socks, men's personal care items, razors/shaving cream, toothbrush/toothpaste, hard candy, pens/pencils, stationary etc. Please bring in either filled shoeboxes or items for filling shoeboxes by Sunday December 2nd. Thanks! Your generosity makes a real difference.

Parish Council Highlights
October 2018

- ❖ St. Margaret of Scotland is now a SafeR Church! Nancy Lee Mason has completed the exhaustive (and exhausting) task of responding to the Diocesan insurer's request that every Anglican church in the Diocese be fully cognizant of the safety of its parishioners, employees, volunteers, visitors, and tenants and have put practices and policies in place to ensure the same. A binder detailing all aspects of our SafeR Church is available in the church office to review and refer to.
- ❖ The annual Turkey Dinner takes place this Saturday, Nov. 3. There are numerous hall rentals and caterings between now and year end. A reminder that if your event is not on the master calendar in Denine's office it is not booked.
- ❖ Reminder from the Friends of St. Margaret's that the John Gracie concert will take place on December 1 with Dunnery Bond opening for John Gracie. The concert will include both Christmas pieces and music from the 1950's. Breakfast with Santa takes place on December 8 and the Friends will also host a luncheon on November 18 for the Feast of St. Margaret of Scotland.
- ❖ Youth Group meets every Sunday afternoon in the hall and all kids Grade 7 and up are welcome.
- ❖ A free will offering teapot is now available at coffee hour for those wishing to make a donation to offset the cost of refreshments.
- ❖ Georgia Johnson will be ordering new St. Margaret of Scotland aprons; $20 in advance. Deadline to be included in the order is Nov. 4. Please let Georgia know if you are interested in ordering an apron.
- ❖ Don't forget to visit our new, updated website. www.stmargaretofscotland.ca and let us know what you think.
