

Word from the Brothers: More

God will always leave us with space and desire for More. God is always greater. If God is not ever greater, then we run the risk of reverencing only the archives of our experience of God, rather than worshipping the living God who is always More. Br. Good News for St. Mark's It's official!

Bishop Ron has appointed a new rector to our mother Church. St. Mark's. The Rev. Nichola Fish-Cumine. Rev. Nichola is to be ordained, Priest on May 30th at the same service that our former student, Taunya Dawson, is made Transitional Deacon. The plan is for the Rev. Vivien Hannon and The Rev. Jim Purchase to continue offering pastoral care and administrative support for the present congregation, while Rev. Nichola concentrates on reaching out to the community to grow the Church. Let us all keep Rev. Nichola and St. Mark's in our prayers.
